

Sinclair Broadcasting has a responsibility to present fair and unbiased programming to the public. However, this organization is making a blatant attempt to influence votes in favor of the Bush campaign immediately before the election by showing the distorted and partisan program "Stolen Honor: Wounds That Never Heal" . Sinclair Broadcasting should be prevented from using the public airways to interfere with our democratic process.